

Shona Bedwell
VICE PRESIDENT - MARKETING AND CORPORATE COMMUNICATIONS

Shona Bedwell was named Vice President – Marketing and Corporate Communications of Becknell Industrial in January 2011.

Ms. Bedwell is responsible for all aspects of corporate marketing and communications including the development of all in-house marketing materials, graphic design, website, internal and external communications, budget and administration oversight, event management and community outreach.

In this capacity, Shona works closely with management and individual departments to support business development, existing account management, brand expansion, and client service excellence.

Prior to joining Becknell Industrial, Shona served as Assistant Vice President – Investor Relations for Duke Realty Corporation where she was responsible for managing the strategic planning, on-going development and coordination of all investor relation activities to broaden and increase the shareholder value and enhance the company image with the investment community. In addition to developing investor relations communications and serving as the primary point of contact for investor issues, she also developed overall investor relations policies and procedures.

Shona received her Bachelor of Science degree in Finance from Indiana University.
