

Eric Schilling
Vice President - Capital Markets

Eric Schilling joined Becknell in April 2018 as Vice President – Capital Markets.

With over 12 years of capital market experience, Eric manages and fosters Becknell's capital market relationships and assists with evaluating existing and future tenant credit. He also oversees financial analysis of the Company's real estate transactions including acquisitions, developments and dispositions.

Prior to joining Becknell, Eric worked for Jones Lang LaSalle as a Senior Financial Analyst of Midwest Capital Markets where he prepared offering memorandum and broker opinions of value for presentation to clients and supervised due diligence, closing processes and coordination on behalf of clients.

Eric received his Bachelor of Science degree in Public Affairs and his Master of Business Administration in Finance from Indiana University. He is actively involved in Hearts and Hands of Indiana and volunteers at his local food pantry.